Policy for Fee concession

Sri Vivekananda Degree College for Women has been continuously striving towards the betterment of the society. One of its major objectives is to provide education for all. It has been observed that the “number of requests regarding the fee concession approach from various students” who are non recipients of scholarships from the government or any other organizations.

It has been therefore decided by the institution to support the students by giving special concession to the needy.

Who is eligible?

Eligibility

- Students who were not eligible for scholarship from govt. or any other organizations.
- Meritorious students are given priority.
- Irrespective of religion, caste or creed are all eligible.
- Economically backward community students.
- Orphans and semi orphans.
- Students recommended by the staff.
- Alumni siblings.

How to Apply?

HOW TO APPLY

The students who are seeking concession in fee are requested to take an application form from the office, fill the application and produce the required documents and submit in the office in due time when announcement is made.

Process

After the due date of application submission, the management proposed committee starts the process by scrutinizing the received applications i.e. which are valid applications and which are not?

The committee thoroughly examine the student and the produced documents.

The committee makes a decision whether to provide concession or not to a particular student.

Finally, the committee submits the list of eligible students for concession provided by the institution to the Principal.

Claim:

The institution offers reduction in the tuition fee which is equivalent to the sanctioned fee concession and they pay remaining during the academic year.
